11.2. In the event the Property is, in the opinion of Seller, significantly damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty after the execution of this Sale Contract and before closing, Seller shall have the option to restore the Property to its pre-casualty condition or cancel this Sale Contract, after giving written notice to Buyer of the option Seller selects. In the event Seller chooses to cancel this Sale Contract, Buyer’s deposit shall be promptly and fully refunded and this shall be a complete and final settlement with Buyer of all of Seller’s obligations to Buyer herein, or otherwise relating to the Property and this sale. Should Seller desire to restore the Property to its pre-casualty condition, Seller shall have one hundred twenty (120) days, immediately following the date on which written notice is given to Buyer, to complete restoration. 13.1. If Buyer defaults in the performance of any term or obligation herein and closing does not timely occur as a result, Seller shall give written notice to Buyer that Buyer’s deposit shall be immediately forfeited to Seller and King (but not King’s Broker) as reasonable liquidated damages and not as a penalty against Buyer. Seller and King (but not King’s Broker) shall equally split Buyer’s deposit between them and keep their respective shares. Buyer forever waives and releases any right to sue Seller, Auctioneer, or Escrow Agent to recover the Buyer’s deposit, or any part thereof, on the grounds that it is unreasonable in amount, or that its retention by Seller and Auctioneer is wrongful or a penalty not agreed upon by the parties as reasonable liquidated damages.

13.2. If Buyer defaults in the performance of any term or other obligation herein and closing does not timely occur as a result, Seller shall have all rights allowed by law and in equity and pursuant to this Sale Contract, including the right to pursue a claim against Buyer for additional damages, specific performance of this Sale Contract, or cancellation of the sale, and including Buyer’s payment of Seller’s reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.

14.3. If the title commitment reveals a defect in title which is not one of the permitted title exceptions, or if prior to closing a new defect in title is disclosed by an updated endorsement to the title commitment, which defect is not one of the permitted title exceptions, prior to closing Buyer may either waive such defect or give written notice of such to Seller and Escrow Agent not later than five (5) days from the date of discovery of such defect in title, whereupon Seller may, at its option, attempt to cure such defect prior to closing, or decline to cure the defect. If Buyer has given written notice to Seller of a defect in title which Buyer does not waive, and Seller is unable or unwilling to cure the defect on or before closing, this Sale Contract shall be terminated without liability to either party and Buyer’s deposit shall be promptly and fully refunded, together with any interest accrued thereon, if applicable, except that, upon written notice to Buyer, Seller shall have the right, at Seller’s sole election, to extend the date of closing by up to sixty (60) days, but not longer, to allow time for Seller to attempt to cure any defect in title.
